

CAN YOU DIG IT?

JULY AUGUST 2020

ONLINE PROGRAMME

JULY 1ST
2PM

GALLOWAY GLENS VIKING TALES

Join an actual Viking* for tales of how they used to live in the Galloway Glens area. Gather the family for this one! *Not an actual Viking.

JULY 7TH
7.30PM

WEBINAR - FERTILIZER, DUNG AND DEFECATION!

Join Archie McConnel from the Dumfries Archival Mapping Project and Professor Robert Marrs as they explore the relationship between land and fertilizers in days gone by.

JULY 15TH
7.30PM

IN CONVERSATION:

David Devereux discusses his work on the extensive Tongland Abbey excavations and the history of this fascinating site.

JULY 29TH
2PM

WEBINAR - FOLKLORE OF THE GALLOWAY GLENS

Dr Peter Hewitt from Stewartry Museum discusses the intersection of material culture with our folklore tradition.

AUG 12TH
7.30PM

WEBINAR - THE WRECKS OF KIRKCUDBRIGHT BAY

Join our friends from the SCAPE Trust for a talk about the maritime history of Kirkcudbright Bay and the Fauna & Monreith wrecks.

All online events are free, but require booking through Eventbrite.

Go to www.eventbrite.co.uk and search for 'Galloway Glens'. Or see the Can You Dig It section of our website, www.gallowayglens.org, or the Events page on our Facebook Page @GGLPArchaeology. All events are broadcast over Zoom - access this for free through www.zoom.us

For more details about how to take part in individual projects, contact Helen on HELEN.KERON@DUMGAL.GOV.UK OR 07827 306866

GALLOWAY GLENS
Landscape Partnership

@GGLPArchaeology